

Faithful to the principles and methods of the Universal Freemasonry, the GLMF maintains close connections with all the main French obediences and many foreign obediences.

The Grand Lodge Mixed of France is member of French, European and international organizations, think tanks including Freemasons: Secular Common Group, Freemasonry and Society, European Masonic Alliance, CLIPSAS.

Abroad, the Grand Lodge Mixed of France promotes and supports the creation of a mixed masonry.

The Grand Lodge Mixed of France works with the French obediences for the promotion of secularism, against the sectarian drift, applied to sustainable development, European Affairs as « to face European crisis: refugees, intolerance, Youth position in the Society ».

The Grand Lodge Mixed of France participations in outsourcing actions, book and culture fairs.

Facing many Society challenges, the Grand Lodge Mixed of France organizes conferences and debates.

As Masons we aim at working our Society issues such as birth, end of life, gene patenting, artificial intelligence, medical experiments, genetic manipulations, fields of Research are started with the « Bioethics and Freedom Association ».

CONTACT US

If you wish to work on the building of a brotherly Society, without compromising, without social, political or religious exclusion.

If you say yes to :

LIBERTY
SECULARISM EQUALITY
MIXING FRATERNITY SOLIDARITY

The work in Masonic Lodges can meet your expectations.

If you have questions,
If you want to go further,
If you want to join us,
Contact us:

GLMF_Officiel

GLMF
8, rue de Bizerte
75017 PARIS

www.glmf.fr
contact@glmf.fr
+33 (0)1 43 87 86 80

FÉDÉRATION OLYMPE DE GOUGES

Women and men determined
to build together,
a Society of justice and fraternity.

GRANDE
LOGE
de MIXTE
FRANCE

Proud of its 300 years heritage, Freemasonry is an initiatory Society. By means of symbols it allows each individual to be a vector of sociability and to give a new philosophical and spiritual perspective to each one. It is an original way which allows to uphold humanistic and republican values.

There is a total freedom of speech, faith or opinion. It guarantees a large debate, bringing up new ideas.

Each one enriches its work thanks to a personal Research work freely expressed to the group.

Created in 1982 and established under the name « Fédération Olympe de Gouges », the GLMF is a federation of Lodges. Each Lodge has the legal status of Association by law 1901.

The lodge is ruled by democratic principles. A general assembly defines the topics and the orientations. The elections are annual with limited mandates.

Constantly growing, in 2017 the GLMF gathers more than 5000 members working in more than 250 Lodges on the whole territory.

The GLMF has members of different ages, they also come from different social, cultural, economic, professional, religious and political backgrounds.

The GLMF accounts for 52 % of Sisters and 48 % of Brothers.

The first article of our Constitution specifies the essential principles to which refers the Grand Lodge Mixte of France :

The Grand Lodge Mixte of France is an essentially humanist, philosophic and progressive institution.

Its purpose is the search for Truth, the study of ethics and the practice of solidarity. It works to improve material and moral, intellectual and social development of humanity.

Its principles are : mutual tolerance, respect for others and oneself.

It proclaims the principle of secularism considered as the opposition to all alienations including any dogmatic influence.

It refers to the absolute liberty of conscience, that is to say, the right for every Freemason to believe in the truth of his choice, or not to believe.

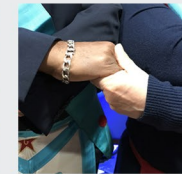

Its motto is :

Liberty, Equality, Fraternity.

Article 2 :

The Grand Lodge Mixte of France has a duty to extend to all mankind the fraternal ties which unite the Freemasons.

It recommends to the initiates to participate in social and cultural public life and to spread the fruits of their research by being an example, by keeping strictly the Masonic secret.

GENEROSITY : THE HEART OF OUR OBEDIENCE

It raises each member to an individual and higher level. Symbolism is a common work topic to all members.

Lodges also share collective thoughts on topics there are subject to reports.

They are proposed in order to improve the society.

LIBERTY AND SECULARISM

Closely related to the total free consciousness, to believe or not to believe, to think, to say, to make, to be who we are without being afraid of judgments. Any political and religious intervention is condemned in Lodges in the name of the republican values and according to the principle of secularism. Secularism which, only, offers this freedom against risks of the diverse extremisms and dogma.

MIXING : A WEALTH

Wealth generates by the complementarity of men and women.

It is also the multiplicity of the rites addressing different sensitiveness.

Most of the rites known in France are practised.

FRATERNITY : HOMELAND OF ALL THE HEARTS

Universal human principle.

United although different with no distinction of specific race, skin color, religion, sexual orientation, gender.

Fraternity leads us in our quest and as to realize GLMF ideals.